

I believe the public deserves better use of our airways than for propaganda. Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary is not only against the law but against the best interests of the public.

Sinclair is welcome to place advertising on their stations that reflects their own biases but to use the public airwaves free of charge to preempt other programed shows in order to air an openly anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
